6. Akta ibu dipinda dengan memasukkan selepas seksyen 7 seksyen yang berikut:

“Entry into premises with a search warrant and the power of seizure

7A. Where information is given on oath to a magistrate that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that there is in a factory or premises any article, thing, book, document, plant, substance, installation or part thereof which has been used to commit or is intended to be used to commit an offence under this Act or regulation made thereunder, he shall issue a warrant under his hand by virtue of which an Inspector named or referred to in the warrant may enter the factory or premises at any reasonable time by day or night, and search for and seize or seal the article, thing, book, document, plant, substance, installation or part thereof.

Entry into premises without a search warrant and the power of seizure

7B. Where an Inspector is satisfied upon information received that he has reasonable grounds for believing that, by reason of delay in obtaining a search warrant, any article, thing, book, document, plant, substance, installation or part thereof in a factory or premises which has been used to commit or is intended to be used to commit an offence under this Act or any regulation made thereunder is likely to be removed or destroyed, he may enter the factory or premises without a warrant and seize or seal the article, thing, book, document, plant, substance, installation or part thereof found therein.

Service of list of things seized

7C. The Inspector seizing any article, thing, book, document, plant, substance, installation or part thereof under section 7A or 7B shall prepare a list of things seized and forthwith, deliver a copy of the list signed by him to the occupier, or his agent or servant present in the premises, and if the premises are unoccupied or if the occupier, or his agent or servant is absent the Inspector shall, wherever possible, post a list of the things seized on the premises and make a police report thereafter.

Appointment, powers and duties of a licensed person

7D. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Minister shall have the power to grant a licence on such conditions as he may think fit to any person to perform any of the functions specified in this Act as the functions of a licensed person as it appears to him to be necessary.

(2) The Minister may, make an order for the purpose of subsection (1) and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such order may—

- (a) prescribe the qualification and standards of competency of persons to be employed by a licensed person;
- (b) prescribe the powers of a person employed by a licensed person to carry out the functions of a licensed person;
- (c) prescribe the records to be kept by a licensed person;
- (d) prescribe the returns to be submitted by a licensed person to the Chief Inspector at certain intervals;
- (e) regulate the inspection by the Chief Inspector of the premises of a licensed person and the records kept thereat;
- (f) prescribe inspection standards for a licensed person to comply with; and
- (g) prescribe the functions or duties to be carried out by a licensed person.

(3) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, authorize a licensed person to demand, prescribe, collect and retain charges, fees and levy in respect of the services provided by the licensed person.

(4) An order made under subsection (3) shall specify—

- (a) the type of services in respect of which charges, fees or levy may be demanded, collected and retained; and
- (b) the duration of the authorization to demand, collect and retain the charges, fees or levy.

(5) A licensed person authorized under subsection (3) shall—

- (a) maintain such account, books and records in respect of the payment and collection of charges, fees or levy as the Chief Inspector may require;
- (b) furnish to the Chief Inspector such information, returns and accounts in respect of the payment and collection of charges, fees or levy as the Chief Inspector may require; and
- (c) permit the Chief Inspector or any other person authorized in writing by the Chief Inspector to have access to or examine or inspect any document, machinery or equipment maintained or used for the payment or collection of charges, fees or levy.

(6) The authorization of a licensed person under subsection (3) shall not render the Federal Government liable to any person in respect of any injury, damage or loss occasioned by the failure of the licensed person to carry out his obligations under this Act in respect of which charges, fees or levy are demanded, collected and retained.

(7) If a licensed person contravenes any condition of the licence or any of the provisions of any order made under this section or any of the provisions of subsection (5) with which he is required to comply he shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

(8) Notwithstanding the licensing of a person under this section, the Minister may give directions to the Chief Inspector to exercise any of the functions which under the terms of the licence are to be carried out by such person.

Revocation of licence

7E. (1) If the Chief Inspector is satisfied that a licensed person has breached any condition of the licence, the Chief Inspector may give a notice in writing to the licensed person requiring him to comply with the condition which he has breached and take all measures stipulated therein within the period stated in the notice.

(2) If by the time the period stipulated in the notice expires the licensed person has failed to comply with the notice, the Chief Inspector shall present a report to the Minister on such failure.

(3) If, after considering the report from the Chief Inspector, the Minister is satisfied that the breach is serious in nature or affects or may affect the safety and health of workers or members of the public and that the licensed person has failed or refused to take or has not taken all measures stipulated in the notice for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the condition which the licensed person has breached, the Minister may give the licensed person a notice stating that he proposes to revoke the licence given to such person and the notice shall also state—

- (a) the breach alleged against the licensed person and the actions or omissions that constitute the breach; and
- (b) the period (which must not be less than thirty days from the date of the notice) within which the licensed person may make representations pertaining to the revocation.

(4) After the expiry of the period stated in the notice and after considering any representations made by the licensed person, the Minister may decide whether to continue with the proposed revocation or take no further action.

(5) Notice shall be given to the licensed person by the Minister informing him of the decision where the Minister decides to revoke the licence or take no further action, and the decision shall come into force on the date the notice is delivered to the licensed person.

(6) The decision of the Minister under this section is final.

(7) Notwithstanding the revocation of the licence, the validity of any certificate of fitness issued by the licensed person shall continue to be valid until the expiry date thereof and the licenced person shall continue to assume any obligation, duty and responsibility imposed by or in connection with the issuance of the certificate of fitness.

Granting of new licence upon revocation

7F. (1) Upon the revocation under section 7E of a licence granted to the licensed person, the Minister may, after consulting the Chief Inspector, appoint another person to carry out, discharge, assume or perform any of the functions, obligations, duties, responsibilities and conditions conferred or imposed by the revoked licence, and to receive any payments, benefits or privileges which the person whose licence is revoked is entitled to receive or enjoy under the terms and conditions of the licence.

(2) The person whose licence is revoked and his agents or employees shall render all necessary assistance and cooperation to the person appointed by the Minister under subsection (1).”.

52A. (1) The Chief Inspector or any Deputy Chief Inspector or any Senior Inspector appointed under subsection 4(1) may, with the consent in writing of the Public Prosecutor, compound any offence committed by any person which is punishable under this Act or any regulations made under this Act.

(2) The Chief Inspector or any Deputy Chief Inspector or any Senior Inspector may, in a case where he deems it fit and proper so to do, compound an offence by making a written offer to the person who has committed the offence to compound the offence on the payment to the Chief Inspector or the Deputy Chief Inspector or the Senior Inspector, as the case may be, within such time as may be specified in the offer, of such sum of money as may be specified in the offer, which shall not exceed fifty per centum of the amount of the maximum fine (including the daily fine, if any, in the case of a continuing offence) to which the person would have been liable if he had been convicted of the offence.

(3) An offer under subsection (2) may be made at any time after the offence has been committed, but before any prosecution is instituted, and where the amount specified in the offer is not paid within the time specified in the offer, or within such extended period as the Chief Inspector or the Deputy Chief Inspector or the Senior Inspector may grant, prosecution for the offence may be instituted at any time thereafter against the person to whom the offer was made.

(4) Where an offence has been compounded under subsection (2) no prosecution shall thereafter be instituted in respect of the offence against the person to whom the offer to compound was made.

(5) Any money paid to the Chief Inspector or a Deputy Chief Inspector or a Senior Inspector under subsection (2) shall be paid into and form part of the Federal Consolidated Fund.”.
